GREENFIELD FRAMINGHAM GIRL WEDS GREENFIELD MAN

Miss Pancoast and Elpheage Kirouac Married at Hanover, N.H. Greenfield, May 18 -- Elpheage Kirouac, son of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Kirouac of Sliver (sp?) street, this town, and Miss Winifred Pancoast, daughter of Fred L. Pancoast of Framingham, were married this morning at the rectory of St. Denis's church in Hanover, N.H., by Rev. F. H. Fliney, pastor of the church. The double ring service was used. A sister of the bride, Miss Marjorie Pancoast, attended her and Ralph C. Lockhart of this town was best man. The bride wore white satin with veil, and carried lilies of the valley and American Beauty roses. Her attendant wore green georgette over pink crepe de chine, and carried tea roses. The young couple came to Greenfield following their marriage, and a wedding reception was held tonight at North Parish Community house, with about 150 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Kirouac will make their home at Boston, where Mr. Kirouac has a position with the National Shawmut bank. The groom graduated from the local high school and from Dartmouth college in 1925, and from the Technical School of Finance this spring. The bride is a graduate of Radcliffe, 1924, and has been employed as assistant librarian at Dartmouth college.
