Lorraine Beatrice (Laliberte) Keroack, 78, of Manchester died July 2, 2011 after a long illness.

She was born in Manchester on September 8, 1932 to Noel and Louise (Houle) Laliberte. She attended local schools and graduated from St. George High School.

In 1952 she married and moved with her husband to New York state where she raised four children. She was a devoted wife and mother and excelled in culinary arts. She enjoyed working in her flower garden, reading and traveled extensively throughout the United States.

In 1982 she returned to Manchester and, shortly thereafter, was diagnosed with scleroderma. She fought a long and courageous battle with the disease.
