Milo Rudolph Eckstein, 73, of Williamsburg, formerly of Central Lake, died Sunday, at the home of his dear and loving friend, Jane Hentschel.

Milo was born the son of Leland and Bessie (Lukavee) Eckstein. Milo served in the Korean War from 1951-52, after which he served in the National Guard out of Cadillac as a Military Police officer from 1952-54. Due to his enlistment in the U.S. Army in 1951, Milo did not receive his high school diploma until 2004 from Traverse City Central High School.

Milo lived to enjoy life. Farming with his best friend and hunting were his two favorite joys in life.

Milo is survived by his best friend, Jane Hentschel of Williamsburg; six sons, Robert, David, Mark, Dean and Gary; two daughters, Betty and Anna; three brothers, Leland, Lamar and David; three sisters, Kathy Coyne, Pauline Brown and Virginia Ward; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
