

Both Millerton Parties Back Kirouac for Village Trustee

Alphonse Kirouac, a Democrat who last year was appointed a Millerton Village trustee when Dr. Josephine Evarts resigned, last night won the endorsement of Republicans and Democrats at village caucuses. Dr. Evarts, a Democrat, became the only woman ever to be elected to the Millerton Village board last spring but resigned later in the year when she moved her residence from the village.

Mr. Kirouac, a barber, now has the endorsement of both parties in the March 21 election for the remaining year of Dr. Evarts' term.
