

From the Monday, January 19, 1981 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

Ambrose H. Burton, 67, of 171 S. Jackson, Bradley, died at 3:55 p.m. Friday at the Danville Veterans Administration Hospital. He was born Jan. 10, 1914 at St. George to Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Burton. Mr. Burton was retired from A.O. Smith, where he had been employed for 25 years. He was an Army veteran of World War II and a member of the Aroma Park American Legion. Survivors include four sons, Harold of Taylor, Mich., Howard of Bradley, John of Salt Lake City, Utah, and James of Bourbonnais; two daughters, Sharon Pement of Chicago Heights and Kathy Buckman of Bonfield; 21 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; three brothers, Francis Burton of Kankakee and LeRoy and Harry Joswiaik, both of Chicago; and one sister, Alma Conway of Kankakee. His parents and one son, Charles, are deceased. Services were today at the Clancy Funeral Home. Burial was in Mount Calvary Cemetery. Pallbearers were James LeBran, Randy and Ronnie Burton, Wayne Ruel, Ruel Hall, Danny Shelly and Whitey Benjamin. Mr. Burton's obituary was inadvertantly omitted from the Sunday Journal. The Journal regrets the error.
