Andrew Kirouac

It is with incredible sadness that we announce the passing of Andrew Loynes Kirouac on Sunday, September 5th , 2021 at the age of 88 years old. Predeceased by his parents, Frederick and Laura Kirouac, his brothers and sisters, Della (John), Omer (Ernestine) and Phyllis (Bert).

Andrew was an important figure to many – he was the loving husband of (the late) Janice Leggo, proud father and stepfather to nine children: Andy (Vicki), Angel (Robin), Brian (Diane) Peter, Roslyn (Donnie), Anne (John), Carol (Lionel), Norman (Sharon) and Diane (Clyde). He was a cherished Uncle, Grandfather and Great Grandfather to many.

Andrew was known lovingly by his grandchildren and great grandchildren as Poppy, Poppy K and Pops. Each and every one of them have a beloved memory or funny story about him that they will treasure forever, enough to fill a book.

No matter the age, Andrew kept his family on their toes in the best of ways – pulling pranks, being stubborn, stealing sweets and hiding treats. He loved simple treasures in life, including his cat CJ, homemade roast beef, reading the Gazette and its comic strips, often referred to as “Andy Capp” in the family, one of his favorites.

Above all else, Andrew loved his dear wife, Janice. Together for 41 years, Andrew and Janice met at the Silver Dragon Restaurant. They were the best thing to happen to each other and their family. Andrew’s love for Janice was deep, enduring and long-lasting.

Although they are missed terribly, knowing they are together again, gives their family comfort and peace.

Services will be held at a later date.

Dad I am very happy that Brian and I got to see you a week before you passed not knowing that would be the last time we will see you. I gonna miss your weekly Phone calls even though the last few calls were very brief but to me they were precious. You told me things that I hold deep in my heart. Now you and Maw are finally together. We love you Dad.

Miss you dearly already, Poppy. Loved waking up on Christmas morning, all crammed in your living room as kids (and eclectic patterned sofa). You loved your singing and dancing Christmas tree. I remember asking my mom if we can not travel on Christmas and stay at home, but I would give a lot to do that again with you and Nanny.

My condolences to the family , God has taken his son home to be with him.. as here on earth we have heavy hearts and tears, but have strength and faith that God will stand by you to help you through this time. Now Andrew is with his beloved Janice and they are together catching up and and starting a new life in heaven with no pain just lots of love... And they will always be with each and everyone of you... God is here for them and us Amen
