From the Wednesday, December 11, 1918 edition of the Kankakee Daily Republican:

MRS. PHILIP BURTON DIES OF PNEUMONIA RESIDENT OF IRWIN PASSES AWAY LAST NIGHT-- FUNERAL THURSDAY.

Mrs. Philip Burton of Irwin, nee Anna Clark daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clark of Irwin died at 10:45 last night of pneumonia following an attack of influenza. The deceased was born Oct. 3, 1890, in Irwin and spent almost her entire life in that vicinity. She was married ten years ago on Thanksgiving day to Philip Burton of Manteno. To that union was born the following children: Alma, Francis, Ambrose, Harry and Leroy. Her husband, parents and sister are also left to mourn her loss. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors lodge, an affectionate daughter, a kind and loving wife and mother and a friend whose loss will be deeply felt by all with whom she has mingled. The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at St. James church in Irwin. Rev. Father Dufault will officiate. Interment will be in Mt. Calvary in this city.
