From the Wednesday, December 3, 1997 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

Anthony Fiorina, carpenter, WWII vet COAL CITY - Antony Fiorina, 82, of Coal City, died Sunday (Nov. 30, 1997) in the Morris Hospital. A memorial Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Monday at Assumption Catholic Church, Coal City, by the Rev. Mark Jendrysik. Private burial was in St. Mary and Joseph Cemetery in Chebanse. Reeves Funeral Home in Coal City was in charge of arrangements. Mr. Fiorina was a carpenter and involved in countless area construction projects. He was born June 6, 1915 in Coal City, the son of Joseph and Dominica Morgando Fiorina. He was a veteran of World War II, serving from 1941-45. His wife, the former June Burton, whom he married Feb. 14, 1950, died in June of 1979. He was a member of Assumption Catholic Church, Coal City. Surviving are one daughter and son-in-law, Monica and John Nelson of Arizona; three grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. Preceding him in death were two sisters, Minnie Fiorina and Edith Grzenda; two brothers, Peter and Dominic Fiorina; and two step-brothers, Joseph and John Baleria.