From the Sunday, January 2, 1972 edition of the Kankakee Journal (w/photo):

Arthur P. DuBois, 82, 1123 E. Merchant St., a Kankakee businessman for many years, died at 4 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of Mercy Hospital, Dyer, Ind. He had been ill for an extended time. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis DuBois, he was born May 15, 1890 at Manteno. For many years he owned and operated the DuBois Heating Co. He was a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church and the Holy Name Society of the church. Survivors include his wife, the former Elizabeth Kerouac, whom he married Sept. 24, 1912 at St. George; daughters, Mrs. Stella Williams and Mrs. Lucille Alwine both of Kankakee; brothers, Harvey DuBois of Manteno and John DuBois of Kankakee; sisters, Mrs. Louise Boudreau and and (sic) Mrs. Irene Gadbois both of Manteno, and five grandchildren. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Patrick Catholic Church with the Rev. Joseph Canella, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Calvary Cemetery. Visiation (sic) at the Clancy Funeral Home will be from 2 p.m. Monday. A liturgy service will be recited at the funeral home at 8 p.m. Monday.