TYNGSBORO, MA -- Arthur J. Constantine of Tyngsboro, MA died unexpectedly Thursday, October 20, 2016 at Lowell General Hospital.

He was married to Claire M. Constantine with whom he would have celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary on October 21.

Born in Tyngsboro, MA, he was the son of the late Guy and Ruth Constantine. He graduated from Lowell High School with the class of 1955.

He proudly served with the U.S. Army.

He retired from UMASS Lowell in 2003. He had previously worked at Com Fed Savings & Loan Bank and at Rex General Contractors of Lowell.

He was a member of the Tyngsboro Board of Appeals and the Tyngsboro Historical Society.

He loved to paint pictures with oils and with water colors. He enjoyed gardening, reading, bird watching and antique cars.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Gary and his wife Diane Constantine of Tyngsboro and Eric Constantine of Salem, NH; one daughter, Gayle and her husband Michael St. Pierre of Milford, NH; two sisters, Phyllis Estabrook of NH and Cynthia and her husband Thomas Tanada of Kissimmee, FL; one sister-in-law, Avis Constantine of Tyngsboro; four grandchildren, Mikayla St. Pierre, Nicole St. Pierre, Ava Constantine and Bella Constantine and several nieces and nephews.

He was the brother of the late Harold Constantine, who died in March of 2013 and Guy Constantine who died Dec. 29, 2015.

CONSTANTINE -- At his request there are No Visiting hours. Private services will be held at a later date. Burial Flint Cemetery in Tyngsboro.

Published in Lowell Sun on Oct. 21, 2016