
Bernard LeDuc Sr.

Bernard A. LeDuc, Sr., 92, of Agawam, beloved husband of Lorraine (Kirouac) LeDuc, passed away peacefully on Sunday, December 16, 2018 at Baystate Medical Center. Born in Northampton, MA on December 8, 1926, he was the son of the late Alphonse and Anna (Levitte) LeDuc and grew up in Northampton before moving to Agawam 62 years ago. He proudly served his country in the US Navy during World War II and the Korean War and retired from the Navy after 22 faithful years of service.

Bernard went to work for Adams & Ruxton Construction Company in West Springfield for over 30 years and was a member of I.U.O.E. Local 98. He was an avid war historian, focusing on World War II and Korea. In his spare time, he enjoyed horses and gardening and spending time with his friends and grandchildren. A proud sailor, devoted husband, loving father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and brother, he will be missed by so many family and friends. Besides his wife Lorraine, he leaves 3 children, Laurel A. LeDuc of Holden, Bernard A. LeDuc, Jr. and his wife Brenda of Southwick, and Robyn L. Riccio of Agawam; 7 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren with 1 on the way; his sister Margaret Brida of Northampton; and several nieces and nephews. Besides his parents, he was predeceased by 5 siblings, Paul LeDuc, Rita Allis, Doris Mulcare, Rose Musiak, and Francis LeDuc. His family will receive friends on Saturday, December 22 from 10-11 AM at the Agawam Funeral Home, 184 Main St., Agawam. His Funeral Service will take place at 11 AM at the funeral home. Burial and Military Honors will follow in St. Mary's Cemetery, Northampton.
