Ann Sullivan, 89, passed away peacefully at home on Sunday morning surrounded by her children, grandchildren, great-grandchild and son-in-law. Ann was born in Chicago and resided in her beloved city for the majority of her life, later she and her loving, late husband of 54 years, John C. Sullivan, Sr., retired to Palm Harbor, Florida and finally moved to Denver in 1990.

Ann loved spending time with her family, laughing, conversing and sharing her pearls of wisdom. She taught them to live every day fully, be healthy as well as happy, always have a smile, and be gracious even under the most arduous conditions.

Ann read voraciously, loved watching movies and never forgot a birthday. Ann was a master's bridge player, ballroom dancer, and an avid swimmer and golfer. Spending her life as a devote Catholic, Ann attended mass daily.

Ann was a proud mother of seven children, preceded by Barbara, Colleen, Samuel and David and survived by John Charles Jr. (Kathleen), Jane Mary, and Mary Margaret (Sherman Miller); five grandchildren, Sarah, Michael, Ryan, Buzz and Ralsey; and two great-grandchildren, Aisling and Benedict.

A funeral Mass will be celebrated at Christ The King, Roman Catholic Church, 830 Elm St., Denver, CO, on Wednesday, June 21, 2006 at 11:30am. Private internment in Marengo, Illinois. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at 1755 Blake Street, Denver, CO 80202. Published in Denver Post from June 20 to June 21
