

From the Wednesday, February 7, 2007 edition of the Newburg-Chandler (Indiana) Register:

Chandler resident Bobbie Stuckey died Friday, Feb. 2 at St. Mary's Medical Center. He was 85. Bobbie retired from Windsor Plastics. He was a U.S. Army Veteran. He was preceded in death by his wife, Loveta. Bobbie is survived by his children, Rosetta Feistel of Rockport, Loretta Carter of Posey County, Fayette Mitchell of Boonville, Arletta Miller of Evansville, Annetta Page of Evansville, Tuanetta Bryant of Evansville, Robert Stuckey of Ft. Branch, Roger Stuckey of Chandler, Rayetta Brown of Evansville, Marcetta McCarty of Newburgh and Ronnetta Smith of Evansville; a brother, Lee; four sisters, Clestus, Ruby, Stella and Florence; and 26 grandchildren. Funeral services were held Monday, Feb. 5 at Alexander East Chapel, officiated by Rev. Freeman Powell. Burial followed at Greenwood Cemetery in Chandler, with military services conducted by American Legion Kapperman Post #44. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 6100 W. 96th Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202.