

SISTER ANTHONY TAKEN BY DEATH

Sister Anthony of Jesus, 72, bursar and auditor for the 15 houses of St. Ignatius province with headquarters in Sacred Heart hospital, died yesterday at the hospital. She had been in feeble health for several years, but had been confined to a hospital room for only one month.

Born Mary Ann Caroline Kerouack at St. Antonin, Quebec, Canada, she entered the order of Sisters of Providence in 1893. She took her vows in May, 1895, and was sent to the Montana missions. She served as sister superior of Providence hospital, Wallace, Idaho, and Sacred Heart academy, Missoula, Mont., from 1909 to 1916.

For 10 years she was bookkeeper for different hospitals, and in 1926 came to Spokane to serve as bursar and auditor of the houses here.

Requiem mass will be celebrated at Sacred Heart hospital chapel at 8 a. m. Tuesday. Burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery.
