

Cecile F. Kirouac

LEWISTON — Cecile F. Kirouac, 83, of 16 Grove St., died Sunday Oct. 26, at Marshwood Nursing Home following a long illness.

She was born in Lewiston March 1, 1914, the daughter of Arthur and Marie (Lebel) Frechette. She was educated in local schools and had resided in this area all her life.

She married Roland J. Kirouac on July 3, 1937. He died Oct. 12, 1997.

For many years Mrs. Kirouac worked at Lown Shoe, where she retired in 1984, at the age of 70. She was a member of Holy Family Parish.

Survivors include one son, Roger Kirouac and his wife Nancy of Roberts, Wis.; two grandchildren, Mark Kirouac and his wife Carmen of Lewiston, and Donna Shaw and her husband Allen of Portland; one great granddaughter, Kymberly Kirouac of Lewiston; one brother, Arthur Frechette of Sabattus; one sister, Mrs. Robert (Rita) Poulin of New Bedford, Mass.; five stepgrandchildren, Kelly Fischbach and Chris Engum of Minnesota, Shane Peterson of Wisconsin, Kari Draovitch of North Carolina, and Scott Engum of Indiana.