

From the Thursday, November 14, 1991 edition of the (Portland) Oregonian:

CLARA MAE COKE A graveside service for Clara Mae Coke, a Hillsboro homemaker, will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in Pioneer Cemetery in Hillsboro. She died in a Hillsboro care center Nov. 6 of causes related to age. She was 90. Mrs. Coke was born July 5, 1901, in Spencer, Kan. In 1926, she married James Coke, and in 1947 they moved to Hillsboro. Mr. Coke died in 1952. Surviving are her sons, Carrol, Archie and Darroll, all of Forest Grove; daughters, Wilma Nunn of Klamath Falls, Colleen Coke of Tigard, Barbara

(NOTE: free download ended here) Posted at findagrave.com, downloaded 5/19/2008:

Birth: Jul. 5, 1901 - Spencer, Shawnee County, Kansas, USA Death: Nov. 6, 1991 - Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, USA Clara Coke Clara Mae Coke of Hillsboro died of causes related to age Nov. 6 at Oak Villa Care Center. She was 90. Graveside services will be held Sunday, Nov. 17, at 2 p.m. at the Pioneer Cemetery in Hillsboro with inurnment following. Mrs. Coke was born July 5, 1901, in Spencer, Kansas, the daughter of Abraham and Elizabeth St. Auburn Curwick. She was raised and educated in Kansas. She married James Cleveland Coke in 1926. They lived in Rossville, Kansas, until 1947 when they moved to Hillsboro. He preceded her in death in September 1952. Survivors include three sons, Carrol W., Archie R., and Darroll D., all of Forest Grove; five daughters, Wilma L. Nunn of Klamath Falls; Colleen F. Coke of Tigard; Barbara J. Scherr of Beaverton; and Eugenia C. Crawford and Janice A. Armstrong, both of Forest Grove; 29 grandchildren, 58 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. emembrances may be contributions to the American Heart Association in her memory. Donelson, Sewell and Mathews Mortuary handled the funeral arrangements