

From the Thursday, November 17, 1994 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

Cremation rites have been accorded for Clement L. Goselin, 76, a retired Bourbonnais farmer. Mr. Goselin died Sunday (Nov. 13, 1994) in Lake Oswego, Ore., where he had recently relocated. He was born May 5, 1918 near Irwin, a son of Adolph and Anna Kerouac Goselin. Surviving are a son and daughter-in-law, Craig and Jenny Goselin and two grandchildren, Todd and Lisa, all of Lake Oswego; and four nieces, one nephew and cousins in this area. Deceased are his wife, Ermal Engelking of Grant Park, whom he married in 1950; an infant daughter; his parents; four sisters and one brother. An Army veteran of World War II, he served in Europe. Mr. Goselin enjoyed hunting and fishing. ERMAL D ENGELKING was buried on 03 Jul 1981 in Heusing Cemetery, Kankakee county, Illinois.