Rush City

Dorothy Curwick of Rush City passed away peacefully in her sleep on Thursday, May 30, 2024 at her home at the age of 94.

Dorothy Eunice Sandling was born March 22, 1930 to Eugene and Alice (Pendarvis) Sandling in Lancaster, Texas. She was the 12th of 13 children. She was the last survivor.

At the age of 15, Dorothy met and married the love of her life George Leo Curwick, who was stationed there in the US Navy. They were married on January 23, 1946. Dorothy's work is described in the Merriam-Webster dictionary as Homemaker. The definition: "a person who manages the household of their own family, especially as a principal occupation." She worked around the clock caring for her family. Imagine the weekly loads of laundry.

They lived in Marshall and Ghent, Minnesota. They moved to North Saint Paul in the 60's, and then to Webster, Wisconsin in the 70's, where they finished raising their family. They lived with and loved each other for 78 years until her death on May 30, 2024. Together they had 12 children whom carried on the legacy of 156 immediate family members.

Dorothy was loved dearly by her husband, children, extended family and friends. She and Bud spent many years traveling to the south to spend the winter in Austin, Mission and Rio Grande City, Texas, where they had their "factory in the south", putting together over one thousand quilts to give away at the Benedictine Monastery where they stayed. They only stopped during the Covid shutdown and Bud decided he could no longer make the drive. They spent summers in Rush City. Their final home was with son Joe and his wife Brenda.

Dorothy had an eternal love and devotion to our Lord Jesus Christ first, Dad was 2nd, but she also enjoyed reading, sewing, embroidery, crocheting dish rags, jigsaw puzzles, word puzzles, baking banana bars and making potato salad, gardening and thrift stores, always keeping herself and her hands busy. She loved spending time with her beloved family, especially those babies.
