From the Monday, February 1, 1971 edition of the Boston Herald, page B12:

Edmond P. Kirouac, Golf Pro at Easton SHARON --

Edmond P. Kirouac, a golf pro who won the state amateur title in 1932, died yesterday. He was 65 and lived at 50 Morse St. For the past five years Kirouac was involved in the operation of the Easton Country Club where he also served as the club's pro. He began his career in golf at Amateur, an ulcer subsequently forced him out of tournament golf and he yturned professional in 1938. His longest stint was at the Sharon Country Club where he was a teaching pro from 1946 to 1965. Prior to that he was the pro at Unicorn in Stoneham, Franklin Country Club and Walpole Country Club. Two of Kirouac's four sons, John D. and Robert R., became champion amateur golfers and rolled up impressive records in CYO tourneys. John is now a Navy lieutenant on the carrier Forrestal and Robert lives in Escondito, Calif. Another son, E. Peter of Sandwich, chose to work in greenskeeping and is a country club superintendent on Cape Cod. The fourth son, Stephen P., is an Air Force sergeant at Hanscom Field, Bedford. Besides his sons, Kirouac leaves his wife, Carol E. (Edwards); a daughter, Mrs. Sally K. Hamilton of Attleboro; three brothers, Elphage of Westport, Ct., Louis of Accokeek, Md., and Raymond of Amherst; three sisters, Mrs. Evelyn MacLeod of Greenfield, Mrs. Rhea St. Lawrence of Hatfield, and Mrs. Jeanette Knower of Greenfield, and four grandchildren. A funeral Mass will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. in Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Burial will be in Knollwood Memorial Park, Canton. KIROUAC -- Of Sharon, January 31, 1971. Edmond P. Beloved husband of Carol E. (Edwards) and father of Mrs. Sally K. Hamilton, E. Peter, Robert R., Lt. J. G. John D., and Sgt. Stephen P. Kirouac. Funeral from the John L. Keeling and Son Funeral Home, 8 Front Street (on the Common), WALPOLE, on Wednesday, February 3, at 10:00 a.m. Mass of the Resurrection at Our Lady of Sorrow's Church, Sharon, at 11:00 a.m. Visiting hours Tuesday from 3-5 and 7-9 p.m. Relatives and friends are invited. Please omit flowers. Contributions may be made to The RedCross of The American Cancer Society.