

From the Thursday, August 14, 1986 edition of the Hillsboro (Oregon) Argus:

Eugene Curwick, native of Kansas Private cryptside services will be held at a later date for Eugene R. Curwick, 85, Beaverton and a former resident of Forest Grove. Inurement will be in Mt. View Memorial Gardens in Forest Grove. Mr. Curwick died Aug. 8, 1986, in Beaverton. Born July 5, 1901, in Emmett, Kan., he was a son of Abe and Louise St. Alben Curwick. He married Isabell L. Leonard Nov. 2, 1920 in Topeka, Kan. and she died Feb. 2, 1976. Mr. Curwick was educated in Kansas and owned and operated a service station in St. George, Kan. for several years. He came to Oregon in November of 1944, settling in the Cornelius, Forest Grove area. He owned and operated a service station in Cornelius and later worked as a mechanic for Bunge Dodge and then for Elmer Hamilton. He retired in 1963. Mr. Curwick was a member of the American Woodsmen of Kansas and enjoyed working in the garden. Survivors include a daughter, Marjorie Trimble, Forest Grove, grandsons Marvin Trimble, Corvallis, James and Gary Trimble, Forest Grove, and Gail Trimble, Gales Creek, eight great grandchildren, and a sister, Mamie Coke, Forest Grove. Forest Grove Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

From findagrave.com, downloaded 5/19/2008:

Eugene Ray Curwick Birth: Jul. 5, 1901 Death: Aug. 8, 1986 Note: h/o Isabell L. Curwick - Buried 8/26/1986 Burial: Mountain View Memorial Gardens Forest Grove Washington County Oregon, USA Plot: Crypt 61,