

From the Friday, November 3, 1978 edition of the Springfield (MA) Union, page 35:

MONTAGUE -- Evelyn (Kirouac) McLeod, 70, of 3 Keith St., Turners Falls, previously of 46 Wells St., died Thursday in Franklin County Public Hospital, Greenfield. A native of Greenfield and graduate of Greenfield High School, she was a bookkeeper more than 20 years for LaPierre's Inc. appliance store, Greenfield. A communicant of Holy Trinity Church, she was a member of its Rosary Society, Deerfield Women's Club and Deerfield Garden Club. She leaves a son, Ralph of Sarasota, Fla.; two brothers, Raymond Kirouac of Greenfield and Louis Kirouac of Scottsdale, Ariz.; two sisters, Jeannette Knower of Greenfield and Rhea St. Lawrence of Northampton; five grandchildren and a great-grandchild. The funeral will be Saturday at McCarthy Funeral Home and in the church with burial in Calvary Cemetery. McLEOD In Greenfield, Nov. 2, 1978. Evelyn (Kirouac) McLeod, 70, of 3 Keith St., formerly of 46 Wells St., Greenfield. Funeral Saturday at 9:30 at McCarthy Funeral Home, followed by the liturgy of Christian burial at 10 in Holy Trinity Church. Burial in Calvary Cemetery. Calling hours Friday 2-4 and 7-9.