Death:	Sep. 24, 2009 Portland Multnomah County Oregon, USA

Obituary from The Montana Standard 9/29/2009:

Florence Kathryn Coulombe, 84, died Sept. 24, 2009, in Portland, Ore. She had moved to Portland from Montana in 2001.

Florence was born in Hollsopple, Pa., Dec. 23, 1924, to John and Sarah Waring Keenan. She was raised in the Bronx, when her family moved to New York. She married Irving L. Coulombe on Sept. 5, 1946, in Gardiner, Maine. In 1951, she and Irving moved to Butte where they raised their eight children. Florence was active in the ALCW of the Gold Hill Lutheran Church while living in Butte. She was a loving and attentive mother to her children and she loved to crochet, play cards, and was always ready for taking a road trip.

Florence is survived by her daughters, Sarah Campbell of Scapoose, Ore., Jane Smerker of Libby, and Patricia McVey of Phoenix; sons, Michael of Butte, Joseph, William and David Coulombe of Portland, and Steven Coulombe of St. Helens, Ore. She is also survived by her older sister, Doris Keenan of Newport News, Va.; 13 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 1, at Gold Hill Lutheran Church.

The family would like to acknowledge the attentive, conscientious, and thoughtful care she received while at the West Hills Health and Rehabilitative Center in Portland.

Remembrances and memorials can be made to Gold Hill Lutheran Church, the American Cancer Society, or Silver Bow Humane Society.
