From the Thursday, June 11, 1992 edition of the Baltimore (MD) Sun, page 3B:

Francis Hiebler Sr., Retired senior auditor A Mass of Christian burial for Francis P. Hiebler Sr., a retired senior auditor for Maryland Casualty Co., will be offered at 9 a.m. today at Sacred Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Church, 6736 Youngstown Ave. Mr. Hiebler, who was 69 and lived on Durwood Road in Dundalk, died Monday of cancer at Francis Scott Key Medical Center. He retired seven years ago after working for the insurance company for about 30 years. He earlier worked for the Baltimore Transit Co. The Baltimore native served in the Army Air Forces during World War II. In his youth, he played baseball and football and later served as president of the Gray Manor Recreation Council. He coached youth baseball teams for the council and also officiated at high schools games. He was married to the former Theresa E. Burton from 1946 until her death in 1967. He is survived by five sons, Burton Hiebler of Essex, and Michael, Mark, Kevin and Francis P. Hiebler Jr., all of Dundalk; two daughters, Neresa Hiebler of Essex and Kathleen Huffman of Fort Hood, Texas; a brother, Stephen Hiebler of Fullerton; a sister, Dorothy Hupfield of Dallas; and five grandchildren.