

KEROUACK—The funeral of Gerard F. Kerouack, son of Leo A. and Gabriel (Levesque) Kerouack took place Saturday from the home of his parents, 34 Beaulieu street. A funeral mass was celebrated at St. Louis' church by Rev. J. B. Labossiere. The choir, under the direction of Edward Gregoire, sang the mass in plain chant. At the offertory Edward Gregoire sang "Pie Jesu" by Leybach. Miss Ida Mongrain was the organist. The hearers, all playmates of the deceased, were Albert Brodeur, Ernest Landry, Fernand Chandonnet, Rene Gagne, Gerard Masse and Rene Bertrand. Burial was in the family lot in St. Louis de Gonzague cemetery, Nashua, N. H. There were many flowers. The arrangements were in charge of Undertakers Napoleon Blodreau & Son.
