From the Sunday, August 10, 2014 edition of the Palm Beach (FL) Post:

Gregory C. Milling, 59, of Lake Worth, FL passed away at J Lauer Hospice Center July 31, 2014 with his family by his side. Greg was born on 9/26/54 to the late Sally Brock and Kenneth Milling in Kankakee, IL. He moved to Palm Beach County in 1981 where he leaves behind his wife, Beth, his children, Andrea, Brandon and Sabrina Milling, grandchildren Serenity, Alexander Milling, former wife and good friend, Deborah Curwick. Brothers, Brian (Barb) Milling of MN, James Grey of VA, Kenneth (Kim) Grey of IN, Christopher Milling of IL and one sister Deborah (Terry) Guimond of IL and many other devoted friends and family. A Celebration of Life will be held in Greg's honor at the Moose Lodge, 835 Belvedere Rd., West Palm Beach, FL on August 23rd from 4-8. Sports attire. In lieu of flowers, should friends desire, contributions can be made to Hospice. To express condolences and/or make donations: Visit PalmBeachPost.com/obituaries.