From the Friday, June 10, 2005 edition of the Lewiston (ID) Morning Tribune, page 5D:

Henry J. (Hank) Vande Voorde Jr. passed away Wednesday, June 8, 2005, at his Asotin home. He was 71. Hank was born Aug. 3, 1933, at Marshall, Minn., to Henry J. and Elsie Van Altvorst Vande Voorde. He was raised on a farm in Cottonwood, Minn., where he graduated from Cottonwood High School in 1951. He graduated from agricultural college in St. Paul, Minn., in 1953. Hank married Carole L. Curwick June 3, 1953, at Marshall Minn. They were married for 52 years. After their marriage, he and Carole moved to Oregon, where he began a career in the plywood industry. His career took him to Colorado, Idaho and Washington, where he retired as manager from Potlatch Wood Products in Lewiston. He served as president of the Asotin Lions Club, and was superintendent of flowers for the Asotin County Fair. He was a member of the Asotin County Master Gardeners, the Valley Woodworker Club, the Twin City Twirlers square-dance club, and worked with the Hi-Lo Chrysanthemum Society. He traveled all over the U.S. and the world on birding trips. He was always a perfect role model, hardworking at everything he did, and was always fair. Ask anyone who worked with him or even knew him, he was easy to talk to when you had a problem and it was always easy to respect his opinion. Inspiring, encouraging, loving only begins to describe him. Hank is survived by his wife, Carole Vande Voorde, of Asotin; three daughters, Lucy Miller and husband David of Albuquerque, N.M., Karen Eastman and companion Marc Hunt of Clarkston, Julie Larsen of Boise; three sons, Mark Vande Voorde and wife Robin of Vancouver, Wash., Michael Vande Voorde of Eugene, Ore., and Matthew Vande Voorde and his wife Maritza of Pleasant Hill, Calif.; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Geraldine Driessen of Minnesota and Marlys Duthoy of California. He was preceded in death by his parents, Henry J. Vande Voorde Sr. and Elsie Vande Voorde. A memorial service will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Merchant Funeral Home in Clarkston. Memorial donations may be made to the Asotin Lions Club, P.O. Box 175, Asotin, WA 99402.
