Notes for Henry Clay GRINSTEAD:

From the Sunday, February 1, 1998 edition of the Kankakee Journal: SMITHS GROVE, Ky. -- Henry Clay Grinstead, 90, of Smiths Grove, Ky., great-grandfather of a Bourbonnais resident, died Friday (Jan. 30, 1998) at his home. Visitation will be from 5-9 p.m. Monday at the Hardy and Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel, Ky., where services will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday. Burial will be in Pleasant Grove Cemetery. He was born in Barren County, the son of Emmett and Annie Lewis Grinstead. His wife, the former Myrtle Whalin, is deceased. Surviving are two daughters, Betty Eskildsen and Delores Merritt, both of Bull Shoals, Ark.; three sons, Paul Grinstead of Bull Shoals, Ark., Donald Grinstead of Magalia, Calif., and Larry Grinstead of Denver; eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, including Sherri Lynn Grinstead, of Bourbonnais; and four great-great-grandchildren. Mr. Grinstead was a retired plumber and pipe fitter for Therma Trane Plumbing and Heating. He was a veteran of the U.S. Navy serving during World War II. He attended Lawrence Chapel Baptist Church.