

From the Tuesday, November 17, 1987 edition of the Providence (RI) Journal, page C3:

The funeral of Henry Lacroix, 79, formerly of Pullen Avenue, assistant superintendent of the former Crown Mfg. Co. for 35 years, and a textile worker for many years before retiring several years ago, was held yesterday. Burial was in Notre Dame Cemetery. Mr. Lacroix died Friday at the Evergreen House Health Center, East Providence. He was the husband of the late Elizabeth (Denelle) Lacroix. Born in Central Falls, he was a son of the late Henry and Alma (Messier) Lacroix. He leaves a daughter, Dolores Lawson of Anaheim, Calif.; four sisters, Jeannette Lacroix of Central Falls, Louise Carao of Providence, Doris Belair of Cumberland, Estelle Vanslette of Medfield, Mass., and two grandchildren.

From the Sunday, November 15, 1987 edition of the Providence (RI) Journal, page C16:

Henry Lacroix, 79, formerly of Pullen Avenue, an assistant superintendent for the former Crown Mfg. Co., Central Falls, for 35 years before retiring 14 years ago, died Friday at the Evergreen House Health Center, East Providence. He was the husband of the late Elizabeth (Denelle) Lacroix. Born in Central Falls, he was a son of the late Henry and Alma (Messier) Lacroix. Mr. Lacroix was a communicant of St. Cecilia's Church. He leaves a daughter, Dolores Lawson of Anaheim, Calif.; four sisters, Jeannette Lacroix of Central Falls, Louise Carao of Providence, Doris Belair of Cumberland, Estelle Vanslette of Medfield, Mass., and two grandchildren. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. from the Darlington Mortuary of L. Heroux and Son, 1042 Newport Ave., with a Mass of Christian Burial at 1 3at St. Cecilia's Church, Central Avenue. Burial will be in Notre Dame Cemetery.