From the April 21, 1999 edition of the Monon, Indiana News and Review:

Hilda S. Curwick, 95; formerly of Monon, died Sunday, April 18, at Twin Lakes Village in Monticello. She was born August 27, 1903, to Adolph and Anna Walters Onken, in Francesville. She lived most of her life in Monon. She was a waitress at Southside Cafe in Monon and then worked at White's Five and Dime Store for several years. Surviving are two sons, Glenn of Monon, and Wally of Lafayette; two daughters, Marcelline Dismore of Reynolds and Linda Franklin of Monon; a sister Edna Dobbins of Monon; 17 grandchildren; 40 great grandchildren; three step great grandchildren and 16 great great grandchildren. A son, two sisters and eight brothers are deceased. Funeral services were Wednesday at 11 a.m. in Kellogg Funeral Home, Monon, with the Rev. James Copeland officiating. Burial was in Roselawn Cemetery, Francesville. Memorials may be given to Monon First Response.