

Isabelle M. Houde

LEWISTON — Isabelle M. Houde, 80, of 12 Dupuis Ave., formerly of 115 Campus Ave., died Sunday at Central Maine Medical Center following a long illness.

She was born in Brunswick Jan. 25, 1914, the daughter of Clarence and Cedeia Longtin Gaudreau. Mrs. Houde had been a resident of this community since 1930 and had been employed as a seamstress for Ward Brothers for 34 years prior to her retirement in 1982. She was a parishioner of the First Assembly of God Church. She was married to Albert Houde. He died Dec. 5, 1973.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Roland (Anne) Jacques of Lewiston; a son, Albert of Westbrook; three brothers, Marcel of Lewiston, Gerald and Lorenzo, both of North Port, Fla.; three grandchildren, Roland Jacques Jr., Joline Jacques Leclerc and Carre Houde; and a great-grandson, Christopher Jacques. She was predeceased by a brother, Florian (Bob), and a sister, Mrs. Jeanne Shapiro, both in 1989.