“ Sue, Cheryl, Scott and Kevin, My heart aches for all of you. Losing your Mom is hard, losing her so soon after a sibling un fathomable. I can only hope that by sharing memories here you will all realize how she lives on in all of us. My memories of your Mom are of course rooted deep in family gatherings, be it Christmas, Easter or Thanksgiving we always rotated a ‘possession’ of Nana and Pepere Carl. Whichever house they stayed at hosted the gatherings. Summertime was spent with plenty of overnight stays between the two houses, swimming in the pond behind the Brooklyn house, Beach Pond, and then of course there were the camping trips. I will always remember your Mom and Dad as the second parents to us, providing all of us with a different/ yet the same safe space in which to grow. You are in my heart at this very difficult time. Much Love, Andie, Pete and girls.
