NASHUA- Jeanne A. Beaulieu, 103, died peacefully at her home early Monday morning, November 6, 2017. She will be missed by her loving family. Jeanne was the beloved wife of the late Charles Beaulieu with whom she shared 36 years of marriage, until his passing on July 29, 1968.

Jeanne was born in Riviere du Loup, PQ Canada on February 7, 1914 and was the daughter of the late Ludger Kerouac and Dorella (Roy) Kerouac. She credited their example of prayer for her deep faith.

For over 30 years, she was employed as the evening proctor at St. Joseph School of Nursing and retired when she was 94 years old.

Jeanne was a religious person, with God always first and a special devotion to St. Faustina. She also enjoyed sewing, embroidery, crossword puzzles and watching the Boston Red Sox and New England Patriots on TV. Above all, her most cherished time was spent with her loving family, especially at her annual Christmas Party and summer cookouts hosted by her children.

She is survived by her son Roger Beaulieu and his wife Yvette of Nashua; her three daughters, Jeannette Ouellette of Nashua, Cecile Lajoie and her husband Alfred (Fred) of Nashua, and Lorraine Blanchette and her husband Rene of Nashua; her daughter-in-law, Patricia Beaulieu of Nashua; as well as her 18 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great grandchildren.

Jeanne was preceded in death by her son Raymond Beaulieu in 2012, her grandson Raymond Lajoie in 2011 and her son-in-law Robert Ouellette in 2009.

Jeanne's family would like to extend a special thank you to the Home Instead Senior Care and Home Health & Hospice for their compassionate and wonderful care.
