

From the Thursday, August 28, 1997 edition of the Springfield (MA) Union-News:

Jeanne (Theberge) Kirouac, 96, formerly of Lawn Avenue, died Tuesday at a local nursing home. Born and educated in Canada, she moved here as a child. She worshipped at the Sacred Heart Church. Her husband, Donat Kirouac, died in 1964. She leaves a son, Maurice Kirouac; two daughters, Ruth Rogers and Rita Kirauac (sic) of Easthampton; six grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. There will be a graveside service on the morning of Sept 3 in St.Mary's Cemetery. There will be no calling hours at Mitchell Funeral Home, and memorial contributions may be made to any charity.
