

Notes for Joseph Eugene CURWICK:

From the Saturday, May 19, 2012 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

St. Anne: Twist of fate turns donor into needy recipient Joseph Curwick could be accused of having a one-track mind, but who can blame him for constantly thinking about his sister, Jamie Boswell. "I love her for what she did for me. I thank God for her every day," he said. Nearly three years ago Curwick's kidneys were failing when it was discovered Boswell was a perfect match and could provide a transplant organ....
