Larry served his country honorable in World War II, and married Jeannette (Albert) Duplessis on Jan. 18, 1958. They met at a dance at Island Park, and he fell in love with her the moment he laid eyes on her. Together they raised six children, and enjoyed a wonderful, quiet life between trips to Canada and Florida.

Larry worked for many years at several different local manufacturing facilities, and then was a painter and maintenance man at Tall Pines. After retiring, he worked part-time at Shaw’s in Lewiston. Larry was a longtime member of Franco-American War Veterans, Post 31, Lewiston.

Fishing, long walks, music and spending time with family were some of the things Larry enjoyed. He was a communicant of St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church. Prior to traveling to his son’s home in Florida, Larry had lived for several years at Schooner Estates in Auburn.

The family would like to express their appreciation to the staff at Schooner for making Larry feel at home there.
