Burial will be in the Marshall Cemetery. Visitation will be from 5-8 p.m. today at the Hamilton Funeral Home with a prayer service at 7:30 p.m. Visitation will continue one hour prior to the service Saturday, at the church. He died Wednesday, March 18, 2009, at the Minneota Manor. Lawrence Orville Curwick was born Sept. 14, 1938, to Leo and Mary (Baert) Curwick in Ghent. Larry was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic faith. He attended St. Eloi School in Ghent, then on to a career as an auto mechanic. Working for O'Connell Motors in Marshall, he became a certified and highly skilled mechanic. Larry then opened up his own shop, Curwick's Garage, in 1968. He would continue to love his career throughout his life. Lawrence met and married Janet Stava, and to this union three children were born, Kenneth, David and Diane. Larry had two more children, Cindy and Stephanie, with his second wife, Judy Oestreich. Larry enjoyed flying, hunting, fishing, spending time with his dog Wags, classic cars and his work as a mechanic. He was a member of the classic cars club, Shades of the Past, Pheasants Forever and the Sportsman's Club. Survivors include his significant other, June Carter of Marshall; children, David (and Diane) Curwick of Rexford, N.Y., Diane (and Tim) Rivas of Victoria, Cindy (and Adam) Titelbaum of Fort Collins, Colo., and Stephanie Curwick of Seattle, Wash.; grandchildren, Elizabeth and James (Curwick), Savanna and Austen (Rivas), and Maddie, Jonny and Ben (Titelbaum); siblings, Eileen Thanghe of Winsted, Alverna DeRoode of St. Paul, Bernard Curwick of Madison, Wis., and Arizona, Marie Sullivan of Marshall, Edward (and Joyce) Curwick of Bishop, Calif., Kathleen Drown of Minneota, LeRoy (and Kay) Curwick of Brooklyn Park, Virginia and Don Steinfadt of Vinton, Iowa, Valerie (and Tom) Jacob of Woodbury; and more than 50 nieces and nephews; and many other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his infant son, Kenneth Michael; sister, Libby Nemitz Berckes; and his beloved dog and constant companion, Wags. Blessed Be The Memory of Lawrence "Larry" Curwick.
