

From the Sunday, December 4, 2005 edition of the Waterbury (CT) Republican-American, page 2B:

Lawrence A. Kirouac Ran Litchfield Farm Shops WORCESTER, Mass. - Lawrence A. (King) Kirouac, 83, of 336 Sunderland Road, Worcester, Mass., formerly of Waterbury, Conn., died Friday, Dec. 2, at the home of his daughter. He was the widower of Jennie (Bisinski) Kirouac. Mr. Kirouac was born Dec. 9, 1921, in Waterbury, son of the late Paul and Emma (Boisvert) King. He was educated in Waterbury schools and was an Army veteran of World War II. He retired in 1978 from the Litchfield Farm Shops where he served as a manager for many years. He had lived in Massachusetts for the past 26 years, having moved from Waterbury. He was an active member and former treasurer of the Knights of Columbus, Sheridan Council in Waterbury and was active in the bowling and card leagues. He leaves a son, Lawrence P. Kirouac of Naples, Fla.; two daughters, Kathie Thuot of Worcester, Mass., and Karen A. Kirouac of Boynton Beach, Fla.; two sisters, Lillian Casey and Frances Burke, both of Waterbury; four grandsons and seven great-grandchildren. Three brothers, Wilfred, Henry and Louis Kirouac, and a sister, Ceil Scadden, are deceased. Arrangements: Funeral 9:30 a.m. Wednesday from Murphy Funeral Home, 115 Willow St., Waterbury, to SS. Peter & Paul Church for Mass at 10:30 a.m. Burial in Calvary Cemetery. Calling hours 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. Contributions: VNA Care Hospice, 120 Thomas St., Worcester, Mass. 01608; or to Kathleen F. Thuot Scholarship Fund, c/o Holy Trinity Nursing and Rehab Center, 300 Barber Ave., Worcester, Mass. 01606.