From the Friday, November 12, 1993 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

Leo P. Goselin, 78, longtime resident of Kankakee, died Wednesday (Nov. 10, 1993) at his home in Boynton Beach, Fla. Surviving are three daughters, Sondra Figueroa of Boynton Beach, Fla., Kathy Dentis of Glenpool, Okla., and Leanna Harrawood of Kankakee; and six grandchildren. He was born Sept. 15, 1915, the son of Adolf and Anna Goselin. He was preceded in death by his wife, the former Madeleine Drolet; and his parents. A resident of Boynton Beach for the past 10 years, Mr. Goselin was a retired employee of International Harvester. He was an avid hunter and fisherman.