

From the Wednesday, February 26, 1902 edition of the Kankakee Gazette:

DEATH AT BOURBONNAIS Mrs. Fred Burton of Bourbonnais died last night at her home in Bourbonnais of typhoid fever. Her marriage to Mr. Burton occurred late in the fall and the groom was taken with typhoid shortly after the wedding day. The wife nursed the husband back to health when she herself was stricken and passed away after a short illness.