

From the Tuesday, October 14, 2003 edition of the Springfield (MA) Republican:

NORTHAMPTON - Marie Rose (Chagnon) Kirouac died Sunday at Linda Manor Extended Care Facility. Born in Northampton on February 11, 1912, daughter of the late George and Clara (LeBeau) Chagnon, she was a lifelong city resident. She graduated from local schools, including the former Sacred Heart School on King Street. She retired from Smith College Neilson Library in 1975. Her husband of over 50 years, Henry E. Kirouac, died in 1984. She leaves 3 daughters, Lorraine K. LeDuc of Agawam, Rose-Marie K. Morin of Northampton and Carol L. Kirouac of Holiday, Florida; 10 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and many loving cousins. The funeral will be Thursday at 11:00 a.m. from the Czelusniak Funeral Home with a Mass of Christian Burial at 12 noon at Sacred Heart Church. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to Sacred Heart Church, 101 King Street, Northampton, MA 01060. Czelusniak Funeral Home, Northampton, Massachusetts 584-3585