

From the Wednesday, October 3, 2007 edition of the Orlando (FL) Sentinel:

LANE, PAUL V., 75, Orlando, passed away Friday, September 28, 2007. Born in Clermont, FL, Mr. Lane was a lifelong resident of Central Florida. He was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps; former owner of Paul Lane Auto Sales, Orlando; member of Elks's Lodge BPOE #1848, Clermont; Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie 3643, Orlando; and the Loyal Order of Moose #766, Orlando. Paul is survived by his wife, Aurora; son, Paul D. Lane, Orlando; daughters, Victoria Vickers, Douglas, GA and Paula Lane, Grove- land; a brother, John Lane, Clermont; and his sisters, Melvina Bohannon, Jacksonville, Jean Boone, Lakeland, and Joan Cantwell, Clermont. A memorial service will be held Saturday, October 6, 2007, 11AM, at the Lake Ivanhoe Chapel of Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home, 301 NE Ivanhoe Blvd., Orlando, with Fr. Ed Thompson, officiating. Military Honors will be performed by the United States Marine Corps Honor Guard. In lieu of flowers, memorial, contributions may be made to Hospice of the Comforter, 480 W. CentralParkway, Altamonte Springs, FL 32714. Please visit and sign our family guest book at www.baldwinfairchild.com

From <http://www.tributes.com/show/Paul-V.-Lane-81677626>:

Lane, Paul V, age 75, of Orlando passed away Friday, September 28, 2007. Born in Clermont, FL, Mr. Lane was a life long resident of Central Florida. he was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps; former owner of Paul Lane Auto Sales, Orlando; member of Elks's Lodge BPOE #1848, Clermont; Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie 3643, Orlando; and the Loyal Order of Moose #766, Orlando. Paul is survived by his wife, Aurora; son, Paul D. Lane, Orlando; daughters, VictoriaVickers, Douglas, GA and Paula Lane, Groveland, FL; a brother, John Lane, Clermont; and his sisters, Melvina Bohannon, Jacksonville, FL, Jean Boone, Lakeland, FL and Joan Cantwell, Clermont.