brought cheer to 23 more.

—The E. A. Bruce Electrical Co. has been reorganized and the personnel has been increased to more efficiently and extensively conduct the business. R.
N. Gowell and J. H. Proctor, both widely known in this city as expert experienced electricians, and who have been with the Hubbard Electric Co., have acquired interests in the reorganized Bruce company.

—The funeral of Miss Elizabeth M.
O'Brien, who died at Riverside, Calif., was held from St. Bernard's church today with a high mass of requiem at 9 o'clock, celebrated by Rev. Fr. Harry J. Hackett, who also officiated at the grave in St. Bernard's cemetery. The bearers were John J. Hogan, James A.
Smith, Edward Hogan, Anthony J.
Lavois and John J. Spillane of this city and Michael Placa of Leominster.

—The noon commissioned officers' school of Companies I and K, 104th infantry, M. N. G., met at the armory Sunday forenoon and received instruction, Sergt. Sandoe taking charge of Co. I officers and Capt. W. L. Mc-Bride of the Co. K officers. These schools will be continued every Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock until Feb. 13 when the annual federal inspection will take place.

suddenly at his home, 40 Myrtle avenue, late Sunday night, following an attack of heart disease from which he had suffered for several years. His death comes as a severe shock to his wide circle of friends.

Mr. Hagar was 49 years old and was born in Roseway, N. S., the son of Elijah and Martha Hagar. He came to this city as a young man and made his home here about 30 years. With the exception of two years when he was employed by Armour & Co., he worked for the C. A. Cross & Co. He was a member of the United Commercial Travelers and Apollo lodge, I. O. O. F.

Mr. Hagar is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret (Mulcahy) Hagar, a brother, Charles D. Hagar of Roseway, and four sisters, Mrs. Emma McKinney and Mrs. Florence McKinney, both of Roseway, Miss Clara E. Hagar of Malden and Mrs. Orin Delaney of this city.

sometimes result in lame muscles, stiff joints, coughs, colds, grippe. When such occur, use Minard's Liniment—pleasant to inhale, easy to rub in. For more than 65 years Minard's has been the favorite family liniment.
