

From the Tuesday, January 26, 2010 edition of the Greenfield (MA) Recorder:

SARASOTA, Fla. -- Ralph E. McLeod IV, 56, of Sarasota, died Tuesday, Jan. 19, 2010, in Sarasota. He was born in Greenfield, Mass., Sept. 13, 1953, the son of Ralph III and Mary Lou (Malinowski) McLeod. He was an alumni of Deerfield (Mass.) Academy. Ralph served in the U.S. Marines. He worked in Florida as a commercial communications installer. Survivors include his wife, the former Donna Sandow; two daughters, Jessica Hillbloom of South Carolina and Ashley of Bradenton; his mother, Mary Lou of Englewood; brothers, David of Maine, Robert of Belchertown, Mass., and Scott of Myaka; a sister, Mary Beth of Sarasota; seven grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. Military services will be held today at 11 a.m. at the Sarasota National Cemetery.

From the Tuesday, January 26, 2010 edition of the Bradenton (FL) Herald:

Ralph E. McLeod IV Born in Greenfield Mass 9-13-53, Died in Bradendon Fl. 1-19-2010. Served in the US Marines. Worked in Sarasota incommmercial (sic) communications installation. He leaves 2 daughters, Jessica and Ashley, Wife Donna, Mother Mary Lou, Brothers David, Robert, Scott and sister Mary Beth as well as 7 grandchildren. Military Services will be Jan. 26th at the Sarasota National Cemetary (sic), 11:00am.