

From the Wednesday, February 3, 2010 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

Visitation for Randy Alan Schultz, 27, of Clifton, formerly of Crescent City, will be from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. Friday at the Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Bourbonnais. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the family wishes. He died Sunday (Jan. 31, 2010) in Ashkum, from injuries sustained in a car accident. He was born Sept. 8, 1982, in Kankakee, the son of Jeff and Wendy Meredith Schultz. He was a competitive sport fisherman and was a member of the Walmart FLW Bass Fishing League since 1999. He was also a member of the Illini Bass Club. He also enjoyed hunting. Surviving are the love of his life, Brooke Wright, of Clifton; his parents of Crescent City; one sister, Amy (fianc?, PJ Donlon) Schultz of Monee; one brother, Kevin Schultz of Herscher; his dog, Jake; and many uncles, aunts and cousins. Deceased are his grandparents, Edward and Vicky Schultz, Lester and Eylene Meredith; and an uncle, Barry Meredith. Please sign his guestbook at clancygernon.com. (Pd.)

From the Monday, February 1, 2010 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

Crash claims life Randy Schultz, 27, of Clifton, was found dead in his pickup truck at the scene of a single vehicle crash on 3000E Road at 2447N in Beaver Township 3 miles southeast of Donovan. "We received the call at 7:28 a.m. but we believe the accident occurred earlier Sunday morning," said Iroquois County Deputy Mike Coleman. Schultz's vehicle was northbound on 3000E Road when it went off the road and crashed into a tree and a ditch embankment. He was pronounced dead at the scene by the Iroquois County Coroner's office. The accident remains under investigation.
