From the Sunday, April 14, 1991 edition of the Providence (RI) Journal, page B8:

Raymond J. Gregory, 72, of Narragansett Avenue died yesterday at Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Lucy (Denelle) Gregory. Born in Pawtucket, he was a son of the late William J. and Elizabeth (O'Day) Gregory. Mr. Gregory was an agent for the United States Treasury Department-Internal Revenue for 13 years. After leaving the Treasury Department he formed Gregory & Co. Inc., representing southern textile mills throughout New England. He later formed the G & G Realty Co., specializing in industrial/commercial real estate. He was president and treasurer of the Gregory Air Freight Inc., with its base of operations in McAllen, Texas. He attended Manhattan College, New York, and Providence College. He was a member of the Providence College Alumni Association. He was a former member of the Wannamoisett Country Club, and the Pawtucket Elks. He was a past president of the Providence Figure Skating Club, and a member of the Memorial Hospital of Rhode Island Corporation. He was a Navy veteran of World War II, and served in the European and Pacific Theaters. Besides his wife he leaves two sons, William J. Gregory of Denver, Colo., and Gary F. Gregory of Pawtucket; a daughter, Susan Gregory Silvia of Seekonk, Mass.; a sister, Barbara Gregory of Falls Church, Va., and five grandchildren. He was father of the late Raymond J. "Jay" Gregory. A concelebrated memorial Mass will be held Saturday at 11:30 a.m. at St. Mary's Church, Coyle Drive, Seekonk, Mass. Burial will be private.
