From the Saturday, July 12, 1986 edition of the Portland (Oregon) Oregonian, page E-5:

Memorial service for Richard Lee Curwick, a former truck driver, will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in Trinity Lutheran Church. Mr. Curwick died of cancer Friday in a Portland hospital after a four-yr illness. He was 54. Born in Brookfield, Mo., Mr. Curwick had been a Portland-area resident for the last 20 years. Mr. Curwick is survived by his wife, Glenda; three daughters, Myrna Curwick of Portland, Doris Villareal of Gresham and Virginia Betsell of Anchorage, Alaska; two sons, Nicholas and Bernie, both of Indianapolis; his parents, Ted and Virginia Elkins of Tillamook; two brothers, Ted Elkins of Beaverton and Mickey Elkins of Forest Grove; three sisters, Anna Mae Taylor of Tillamook, LaVern Redding of Cenebar, Wash., and Ruby Poteepe, Little Rock, Ark.; four stepchildren, Lisa, Eric, Tara and Jason Schommer, all of Portland; and four grandchildren. Disposition was by cremation. The family suggests remembrances be contributions to the American Cancer Society.
