

From the Saturday, June 22, 2002 edition of the Providence (RI) Journal, page B5:

RICHARD D. GRADY, 65, of West Shore Road, a retired executive and business owner, died Thursday at home. He was the husband of M. Dorothy (Denelle) Grady. They had been married for 40 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Joseph A. and Evelyn (Plante) Keough-Grady, he had lived in Warwick for 40 years. Mr. Grady was the president of Karick Corp. for 30 years before retiring this year because of illness. Previously, he had been an agent for American Airlines for 17 years. He had formerly owned Future Travel for several years, and had owned D.G.'s Arcade for 16 years. He was a member of the "100" Club of Rhode Island, the Warwick Sportsmen's Club, and the Emerald Society of Rhode Island. Mr. Grady was an Air Force veteran of the Korean War. He was an avid fisherman and gardener. Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Richard E. and Brian P. Grady, both of Warwick; two daughters, Karen M. Buckley of Cumberland and Lynn M. Kania of Warwick; a brother, Raymond P. Keough of Cumberland; a sister, Janet R. Sullivan of Westerly; and six grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Francis J. Grady. The funeral will be held Monday at 8:45 a.m. from Russell J. Boyle & Son Funeral Home, 142 Centerville Rd., Route 117, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 in St. Benedict Church, Beach Avenue. Burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Providence.

From the Warwick (Rhode Island) Beacon:

Richard D. Grady, 65, of West Shore Road, a retired executive and business owner, died June 20, 2002, at home. He was the husband of M. Dorothy (Denelle) Grady. They had been married for 40 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Joseph A. and Evelyn (Plante) Keough-Grady, he had lived in Warwick for 40 years. Mr. Grady was the president of Karick Corp. for 30 years before retiring this year because of illness. Previously, he had been an agent for American Airlines for 17 years. He had formerly owned Future Travel for several years and had owned D.G.'s Arcade for 16 years. He was a member of the "100" Club of Rhode Island, the Warwick Sportsmen's Club and the Emerald Society of Rhode Island. Mr. Grady was an Air Force veteran of the Korean War. He was an avid fisherman and gardener. Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Richard E. and Brian P. Grady, both of Warwick; two daughters, Karen M. Buckley of Cumberland and Lynn M. Kania of Warwick; a brother, Raymond P. Keough of Cumberland; a sister, Janet R. Sullivan of Westerly; and six grandchildren, McKenzie, Keegan and John Buckley, Ryan and Alyssa Kania and Richard M. Grady. He was the brother of the late Francis J. Grady. The funeral was held from Russell J. Boyle & Son Funeral Home, 142 Centerville Rd., Route 117, with a Mass of Christian Burial in St. Benedict Church, Beach Avenue. Burial was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions to the imPossible Dream, 575 Centerville Rd., Warwick, RI 02886, or St. Benedict Church, 135 Beach Ave., Warwick 02889 in his memory would be appreciated.