

Rodney M. Marshall, age 85, died at his daughter's home in Fountain, Colorado on Tuesday, October 25, 2016 with his family at his side. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend. He had retired from the U.S. Air Force after twenty-three years of service to his country in the Radar Field, and then retired from his second career as a expert plumber. Rodney Morgan Marshall was born on May 16, 1931 in Stowe, Vermont to the late Louis and Martha (Raymo) Marshall. He was a 1949 graduate of Stowe High School and then entered the Air Force. He became a Chief Master Sergeant before retiring. He married Constance DuBois in 1955 in Manchester, New Hampshire. Together they raised a family. He later married Karen Scott in 1974 in Colorado Springs.

Rodney enjoyed watching the Tampa Bay Rays, hunting, building birdhouses, taking walks, working on his yard, and fishing on his boat in the Gulf of Mexico.

Memorial donations may be made in Rodney's memory to the American Cancer Society.
