

ROLAND H. KIROUAC

Roland H. Kirouac, 71, of Jericho Road, New Bloomfield, died Wednesday, Jan. 26, 2005 in Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill.

He was born March 24, 1933 in Massachusetts to the late Edward and Olita Kirouac.

He was a self-employed well driller; an Air Force and Army veteran of World War II and the Korean War; a member of an American Legion post in Florida; and known as "dipstick," he enjoyed communicating with his CB friends and was an avid hunter and fisherman.

Surviving are his wife of 48 years, Nancy Valentine Kirouac; two sons, Mark A. of Duncannon and Christopher E. of York; three daughters, Janet M. Kirouac of California, Barbara J. Kriner of Hershey and Amie O. Comp of Newport; two brothers, Edmond and Rene, both of Florida; and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Services were held Jan. 29, in Boyer Funeral Home, New Bloomfield, with the Rev. Michael Witmer officiating.
