My Uncle Sam was the last of a great group of family relatives! He outlived them all! He left a wonderful legacy in his sons and daughters. I have special memories of all the good times at family gatherings that will last a lifetime. I join with Bob, Sharon, Larry, Geri, Nancy, Bruce, Susan, and Tom and all their children in celebration of his life.

Nancy and extended family, condolences from the Clair(s), I now have a face to the many times you mentioned your Dad. The service to his country during the War years was indeed a tribute to this fine man, we cannot imagine the dreadful time it must have been. He was rewarded with a long life, wonderful family and must have been proud of the achievements of all of you. My Dad was a veteran of WW11 and late in life often mentioned the "guys" who didn't make it or had a rough time, his sentence trailing off... God Bless him and you folks at this time of difficulty. Sean and Mary
